ABOUT US

BPI is one of India's leading publishers with a mission to provide learning solutions to children as well as parents. Since its inception in 1999, BPI has quickly become a popular name in the publishing industry. It was initially involved in the field of children books and educational toys but it soon diversified into various genres like Fiction, Nonfiction, Classics, Fantasy and Adventure.

Continuing in the vein of success, BPI became part of the S Chand Group. The group has to its credit decades of experience in publishing academic books and has published many best-selling books authored by eminent academicians. In line with S Chand's vision of becoming a 'knowledge corporation', BPI is making strides in both print and digital publishing domain. Our team at BPI has worked diligently to publish over 1,000 titles, covering a variety of genres and languages. These beautifully designed and illustrated books have been prepared with strict adherence to quality standards to make learning a joyful experience. Our products are available at hypermarkets and digital platforms to reach out to the readers directly. Team BPI has achieved milestones by expanding its vertical and offerings.
